

Drawings extracted from External timber cladding 2nd edition

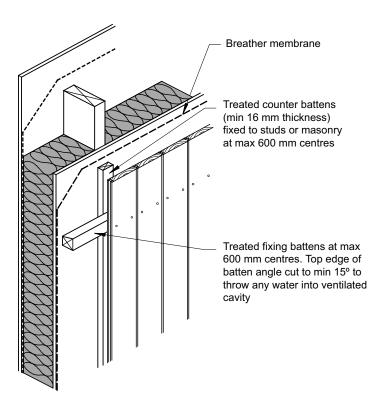

Figure 5.8 Typical construction: vertical tongued and grooved boarding on horizontal battens and counter battens

Note: The drawing shows cladding details on conventional timber frame construction. For other forms of construction, the details outside the breather membrane are the same